he roads are muddy it is believed the robbers will be captured. The robhers secured but half an hour's start. The robbery was one of the most daring ever executed in this part of Kansas, the scene of many hold-ups on the part of the Daltons, Starrs and other gangs of outlaws, who from time to time have made their rendezvous in the mountainous country of nearby Oklahoma.

Cashier. Walterhouse had scarcely pened the bank at Chautauqua this morning and placed his currency on the counter ready for the day's business, when the two robbers entered The only other person in the place was Del Easley.

The robbers, both of them well dressed, made their way leisurely to the cashier's window.

One of them was a man well known about town, and when he commanded Walterhouse and Easley to throw up their hands, the latter two Took the 2-America Maru..... Yokohama matter in the light of a joke.
